

ISAIAH
Rejoice In The Servant
Isaiah 42:5-13

Mac Williams, Pastor
July 24, 2016

1. God, the Mighty _____ and Covenant Lord, appoints His Servant as a covenant to the people.

- a. Because of who God is, the _____ He makes to the Servant are absolutely sure and trustworthy.

- b. The Lord, in a righteous manner, gives the Servant as a _____ to a people from all nations.

*“Although the ‘Servant’ is introduced to Isaiah, in the prophet’s time period, this conversation with and promise to the Lord’s ‘Servant’ could have only taken place in the _____ counsels of eternity past and it all speaks of future redemption.”
- Earl Blackburn*

- c. It is by the righteous work of the Servant that people who are spiritually _____ and imprisoned will be transformed.

2. It is God who gets the _____ for this amazing work of gospel transformation in people of the nations.

- a. God deserves glory because the fulfillment of His _____ prophecies, gives certainty that these later prophecies will also come to pass.

- b. God deserves glory from peoples from all over the world so they are called to _____ joyful praises to Him.

- c. God deserves glory as He overcomes the stubborn resistance and attacks of _____ to ensure that His word will be fulfilled.