Sermon: "How Can The Lord Fix This!" Ruth and Covenant Survival. Pt.1

I Text:

Old Covenant: Ruth 1:1-5

New Covenant: John 6:35-40

II Doctrine:

The books of Ruth and Judges are twin books. The book of Judges describes the collapse and judgment of the Hebrew nation. The book of Ruth illustrates how the faithful survive during the collapse.

The situation could not have been worse for a family's covenantal survival. Firstly Naomi's family takes refuge in the land of Moab. Secondly Moabites were idolaters and sexually perverted. Their Nation was born of an incestuous relationship between Lot and his daughters.

Every covenant head in the family dies while they are in Moab! This nameless group of women must somehow survive, and preserve their covenant line. How can the Lord fix this!

III Comparing Scripture With Scripture:

1) The books of Ruth and Judges are twin books. Judges describes the collapse and judgment of the Hebrew nation. The book of Ruth illustrates how the faithful survive during the collapse. (Ruth 1:1)

2) The situation could not have been worse for a families covenantal survival. Firstly Naomi's family takes refuge in the land of Moab. Secondly Moabites were idolaters and sexually perverted. Their Nation was born of an incestuous relationship between Lot and his daughters. (Ruth 1:2-4; Numbers 25:1-5; Genesis 30:30-38)

3) Every covenant head in the family dies while they are in Moab! This nameless group of women must somehow survive, and preserve their covenant line. How can the Lord fix this! (Ruth 1:5; John 6:35-40)
