

“O Lord, How Manifold Are Your Works”

Psalm 104

Introduction:

Main Point: Contemplating Scripture and the world around us is a very beneficial endeavor that is worthy of our time and effort. For example, this beautiful psalm of praise is the result of such meditation. Through it we see the revelation of the Lord’s almighty power and tender care for all creation and are swept up into the consummation of all things for His own glory.

I. You created heaven and earth for your glory

II. You open your hand, they are satisfied with good

III. You will bring all things to your appointed end

Conclusion: