

“To Judge or Not to Judge?!”

Some thoughts from Matthew 7:1-6

Pr. Gregg Hensel

July 24, 2022

Introduction

- I. Do Not Judge _____.
- A. God is the _____.
 - B. You Have the Wrong _____.
 - C. You Need to _____ Clearly.
 - D. Then You Can Truly Help _____.
 - E. There is a Time to _____ (Jn. 7:24).
 - 1. _____ right from wrong.
 - 2. _____ truth from error.
 - 3. _____ spiritual growth and maturity in others.
- II. But Judge _____.
- A. The Things of God are _____.
 - B. There are True _____ of God.
 - C. Deal _____ with Others.

Conclusion

Application

1. Because God is the ultimate Judge, we will depend upon His _____ to judge right from wrong with gentleness and truth.
2. Because we all still deal with sin, we ask God to shed His light on our own hearts and minds before we _____ what others are doing.
3. Because we have received mercy, we will not be perpetual _____ in the lives of others, but extend to them the mercy we have received.
4. As ambassadors of Christ, we depend on His wisdom to handle the _____ things of God in a wise manner before others.