

In the Classroom of
GRACE

Titus 2:11-14

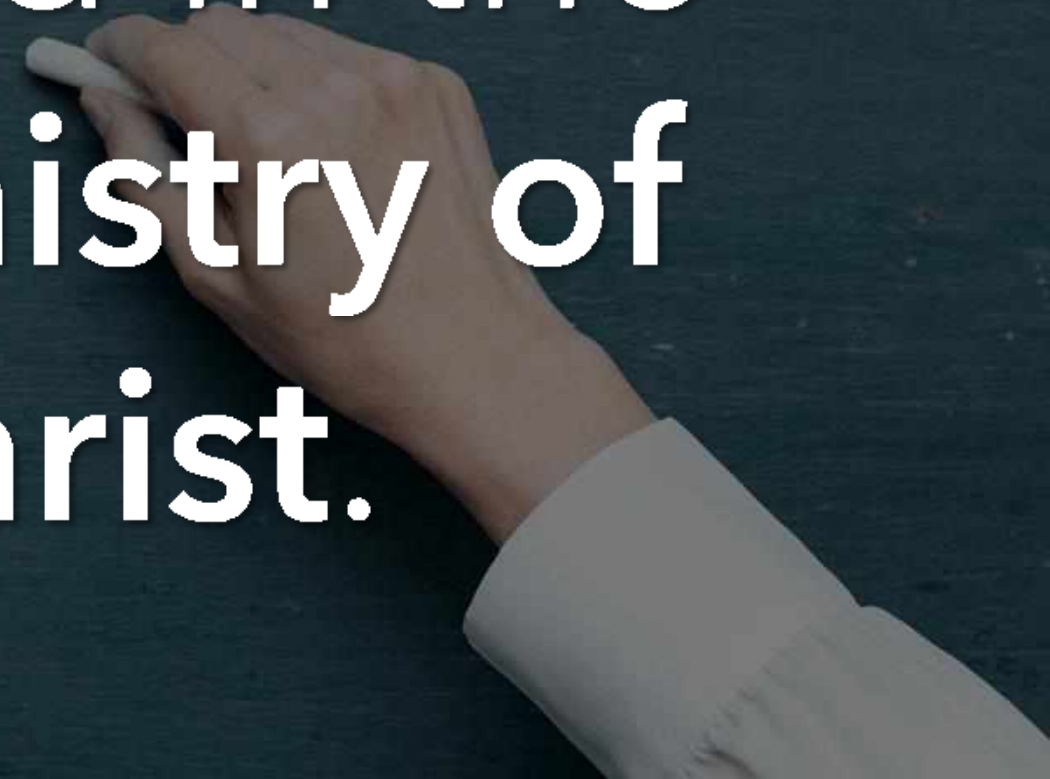

Have you ever
learned something
important in an
unexpected way?

God's favor on us
teaches us to live
differently from
the world.

A hand holding a white marker is visible on the right side of the image, positioned as if writing on a dark surface. The hand is wearing a light-colored, long-sleeved shirt cuff. The background is a dark, textured surface, likely a chalkboard, which provides a high contrast for the white text.

Paul summarizes the grace of God in the
life and ministry of
Jesus Christ.

The kindness and the love
of God our Savior toward
man appeared.

Titus 3:4

For the law was given
through Moses, but grace
and truth came through
Jesus Christ.

John 1:17

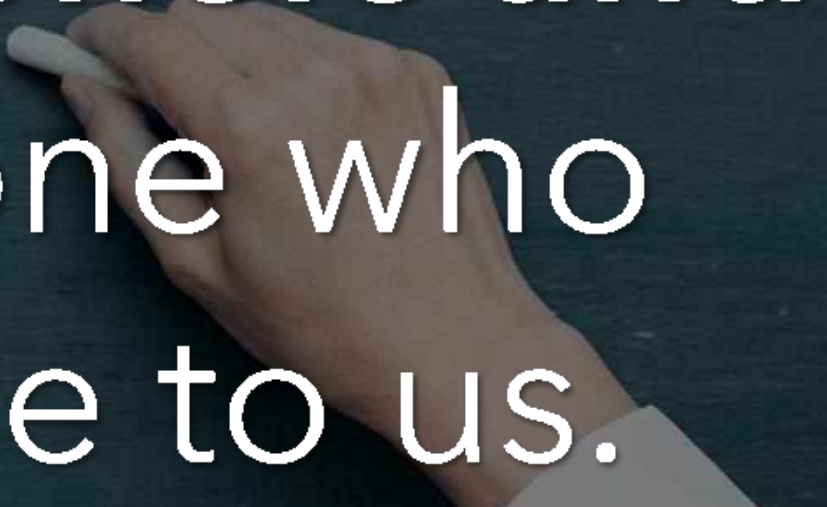

Grace teaches us
what we should avoid.

God's grace
does not justify
ungodly behavior.

A hand holding a white marker is visible on the right side of the image, positioned as if writing the text on a dark surface. The hand is wearing a light-colored sleeve.

Grace teaches us to live
in a way that honors and
pleases the one who
showed grace to us.

A hand holding a white marker is visible on the right side of the image, pointing towards the text. The hand is wearing a light-colored sleeve. The background is a dark, textured surface.

Christ's life shows us our complete inability to please the Lord and his
total ability to enable us.

A hand holding a white marker is visible on the right side of the image, pointing towards the text. The hand is wearing a light-colored sleeve. The background is a dark, textured surface, possibly a chalkboard or a wall.

All believers should eagerly anticipate
the return of Christ.

Without question,
Paul is equating
God and Jesus.

A hand in a light-colored sleeve is visible on the right side of the image, pointing towards the text. The background is a dark, textured surface.

Our old man was crucified
with Him, that the body of sin
might be done away with, that we should no longer be slaves of sin.

Romans 6:6

Grace is a lifestyle
we have been
redeemed to live.

A hand in a white sleeve is visible on the right side of the image, appearing to have just finished writing the text on a dark green chalkboard. The hand is positioned near the end of the word 'live'.

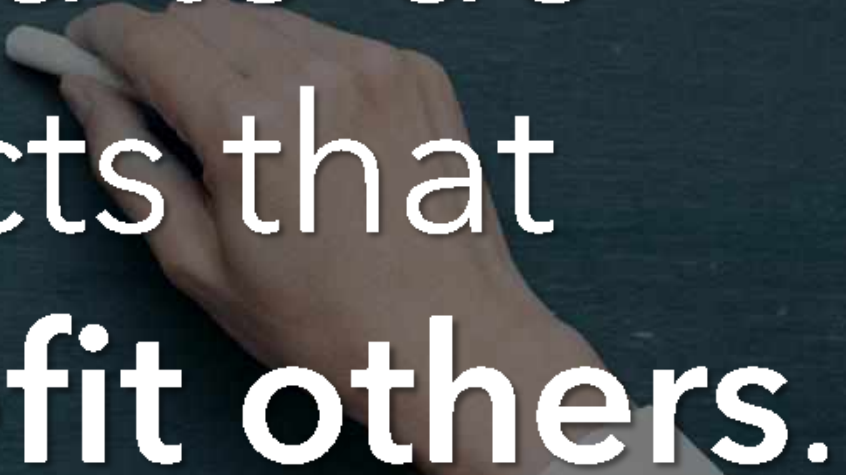

If you will indeed obey my voice and keep my covenant, then you shall be a special treasure to me above all people.

Exodus 19:5

Jesus has already
purified us so that
we could be
his special people.

A hand holding a white chalk is visible on the right side of the image, positioned as if writing the text on a dark green chalkboard. The text is written in white, with the final sentence in a bold font.

We are a special
people called to do
righteous acts that
bless and benefit others.

A hand holding a white marker is visible on the right side of the image, positioned as if writing on a dark, textured surface. The hand is wearing a light-colored sleeve. The text is written in white, with the words 'ble', 'ss', and 'and' in a smaller font size than the other words.

God's favor on us
teaches us to live
differently from
the world.

A hand holding a white marker is visible on the right side of the image, positioned as if writing on a dark surface. The hand is wearing a light-colored, long-sleeved shirt cuff. The background is a dark, textured surface, likely a chalkboard or blackboard, which provides a high contrast for the white text and the hand.