

JOB
Job's Third Response to Eliphaz
Job 23:1-24-25

Mac Williams, Pastor
July 29, 2012

1. Job's response to Eliphaz.

23:1-7 Job justifies his complaints about his suffering and continues to express his desire to present his case to _____ where he knows God would deal favorably with him.

23:8-12 He cannot understand God's dealings with him but Job knows that God is a witness to his life of _____.

23:13-17 Job is overwhelmed and even dismayed as he considers the reality of God's sovereign and unalterable _____.

24:1-12 It can be disheartening to see those who _____ sin against their neighbors and God does not bring them to justice.

24:13-17 There are those who _____ sin--commit crimes against others who go unpunished because they go undiscovered.

24:18-25 These daring sinners prosper and are at ease for a while but they will ultimately be _____.

2. Persevering when circumstances are dark and _____ seems distant.

- a. There are times when we cannot understand what God is doing or even if He is _____ with us.

- b. Even when our assurance of God is weak, we must continue to _____ that He is sovereign in all things.
 - 1) God is intimately acquainted with _____ our ways.

 - 2) God is using our trials to _____ us.

- c. It is imperative that we hold firm to the _____ of _____.
 - 1) It is primarily through the Word of God that God makes Himself _____.

 - 2) The great benefits of the Word of God:
 - a) It awakens and strengthens _____.

 - b) It brings a fullness of the _____.

 - c) It creates and sustains _____.

 - d) It gives _____.

 - e) It is the source of true _____.