

GALATIANS
Don't Be Fooled
Galatians 3:1-5

Mac Williams, Pastor
July 17, 2011

1. Christians must be on guard because they can be _____ about Biblical truth and how it should be rightly applied.

"None of us should so _____ in ourselves that we think that when we have received grace, we are thoroughly purged from our old vices. Indeed, many things are purged in us, and the head of the snake--that is, infidelity and ignorance of God--is cut off and bruised; but the slimy body and the remnants of sin still remain in us." - Martin Luther

- a. Christians can be fooled when Christ is not _____ in their faith.
- b. Christians can be fooled when they do not rightly connect _____ and experience.
- c. Christians can be fooled because _____ is always seeking to deceive.

2. The Christian life is a work of the Holy _____ from beginning to end.

- a. The Holy Spirit is received in the context of a person coming to _____ in Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord.

- b. The Christian life can only be _____ by the Spirit.
- c. God gives the Spirit to _____ believers and works in miraculous ways in their lives.

3. The Christian life is a life of _____ from beginning to end.

- a. The Christian life _____ when a person hears the gospel and responds in faith.
- b. Christians continue to live by faith in the Lord and not by _____ in themselves.

*"True righteousness does not come through the works of the _____; it comes through hearing with faith, which is followed by the powerful deeds and fruits of the Spirit."
- Martin Luther*

KID'S SERMON OUTLINE
Sunday, July 17, 2011

GALATIANS
Don't Be Fooled
Galatians 3:1-5

1. Christians must be on guard because they can be about Biblical truth and how it should be rightly applied.

2. The Christian life is a work of the Holy _____ from beginning to end.

3. The Christian life is a life of _____ from beginning to end.