1. The truth of the _____ (justification) is clearly illustrated in Abraham.

a. Abraham _____ God and therefore believed His promises.

"Abraham's _____ is seen as a 'readiness to surrender unreservedly to the word of the Lord, regardless of how incredible it seemed.'"

- H.N. Ridderbos as quoted by Curtis Vaughan

"Faith is infinitely powerful, because it gives _____ to God which is the greatest service that can be offered Him."

- Martin Luther

b. _____ credited Abraham's faith to him as righteousness.

c. Every person who has the same faith as Abraham is a true _____ of Abraham.

"There is no place in the _____ for anyone who is not a son of Abraham." - John Calvin

2. The gospel that was declared to Abraham is the _____ gospel that has been God's provision for salvation for all peoples at all times in history.

a. The Scriptures make known the decrees of _____ concerning how a person can be justified.

b. The gospel was _____ to Abraham and he believed it.

"The (gospel) story is _____ than people realize. It goes back at least to the days of Abraham. Indeed, it goes all the way back to Adam and Eve (Gen. 3:15), who were the first to hear it. Ultimately, the good news of the Old Testament is the good news about Jesus Christ."

- Philip Ryken

3. The promise made to Abraham guarantees gospel blessings to all the _____ of the earth.

"It is through the Christian church and the gospel of Jesus Christ that God will bring into the world a body of believers as countless as the stars of heaven and the dust of the earth. The New Testament Great Commission (Matt. 28:19-20) to disciple all nations is in fact founded on the Abrahamic covenant's revelation of God's will to bring spiritual blessing to _____ nations." - John Jefferson Davis

"The promises of God in Scripture, and _____ present world conditions, should be the decisive factor in our hope for the future prospects of the people of God in history."

- John Jefferson Davis
