Ruth 4:13-22; Pastor Doug Warren

Sermon Notes

I. Naomi's Is a Story of Redemption.

II. She Is Restored as a Whole Person.

III. Obed Is More than a Grandson!

Taking Gathered Worship Home--This Week . . . Spend time in His Word each day.

Sunday

Read Ruth 1-4. Ask How does this love story point us to Christ? Pray Lord Jesus, thank You for Your amazing love for us!

Monday

Read Ruth 4:13. Ask This is the happy ending, yet the story doesn't end here. Why not? Pray Lord, thank You for caring for our needs. You're so gracious to us. Praise You!

Tuesday

Read Ruth 4:13-16. Ask Why the focus on Naomi? What is God teaching us in this story? Pray Lord, You remember us and we so quickly forget You. Help us to consider You in all that we do.

Wednesday

Read Ruth 4:16-22; Matthew 1:1; 2Tim 2:8-13. Ask How does Obed's relationship to King David point us to Christ? Pray Lord, thank You for faithfully fulfilling Your promises to provide us not just a king, but the King to save us from sin and death.

Thursday

Read Ruth 4:17; Psalm 18:46-50. Ask Whose descendants would God bless? How does Jesus fit into this? Pray Lord, thank You for providing the Son of David who would secure our forgiveness and blessings forever.

Friday

Read Ruth 4:11-12; Acts 10:34-43. Ask What was Jesus anointed to do? How does He fulfill the role of King in a way that David never could? Pray Lord, we need You as our King. Teach us to joyfully submit to Your rule.

Saturday

Read Ruth 4:16-22; Matthew 9:27; 20:30. Ask Why did people appeal to Jesus as the "Son of David" and what does that have to do with Naomi's kinsman-redeemer? Pray Lord, You are our Redeemer, the One who has purchased us from sin and death. Make us joyful, bold, and passionate in our humble service to You. Free us from striving to save ourselves!
