

Job 2:1-10

Consider Job 2: Skin for Skin

Another Fateful Day ...

I. A Person of Interest

A. Before the Throne of God

B. A Sinister Hand

C. The Humble Subject

II. Skin & Bone

A. The Person of Job

B. The Tempter's Target

C. Integrity Prevails

III. Though He Slay Me

A. Perspective

B. Perseverance

C. Praise

... in the life of God's servant.

Children, Listen ...

1. What already happened to Job?
2. What did Satan want to do to him now?
3. Who do you think gave Job strength to deal with his broken health?
4. What does Job say to his wife that let's us know he trusted God?

Interview II

Job has already been through unimaginable trial and loss, but broken as he is, his devotion to his Lord prevails. Just when we thought it could not get any worse ... it does. Once again we find Job, the object of God's love, the target of Satan's spite. God esteems Job as exemplary, Satan sets out to make him a byword for failure. This time the evil adversary has Job's bodily person in the crosshairs of his hatred and the Lord permits him to afflict him within an inch of his life. Will Job cave in to the agonies inflicted on his flesh? His last remaining immediate family member exhorts him to do so. We have a long way to go in this great book, but here at the outset of the account we are anxious to discover if God's care prevails and if Job's faith survives.