

“A Contest between Counselors as God Takes Sides”

2 Samuel 17:1-23

2 Samuel 12:8-12

- I. Ahithophel, Israel’s greatest counselor (16:23), tells Absalom to strike and kill King _____ before he and his forces have the chance to regroup (17:1-4).
- II. Absalom calls for a second opinion from Hushai, who plays on Absalom’s _____ of his father’s reputation as a cunning warrior, _____ of failure in his first war-effort as king, as well as on his _____ of leading a massive army (7:5-13).
- III. _____ prospers Hushai’s false counsel (7:14)!

2 Samuel 15:25-26; 16: 10-12

- IV. On the ground, without knowledge of God’s intervention, David’s communications network was narrowly _____ by the cleverness of a female servant (7:15-20).
- V. David _____ to a safer position and Ahithophel, seeing the writing on the wall, kills himself (7:21-23).

Psalms 16:8-11

“A Contest between Counselors as God Takes Sides”

2 Samuel 17:1-23

2 Samuel 12:8-12

- I. Ahithophel, Israel’s greatest counselor (16:23), tells Absalom to strike and kill King _____ before he and his forces have the chance to regroup (17:1-4).
- II. Absalom calls for a second opinion from Hushai, who plays on Absalom’s _____ of his father’s reputation as a cunning warrior, _____ of failure in his first war-effort as king, as well as on his _____ of leading a massive army (7:5-13).
- III. _____ prospers Hushai’s false counsel (7:14)!

2 Samuel 15:25-26; 16: 10-12

- IV. On the ground, without knowledge of God’s intervention, David’s communications network was narrowly _____ by the cleverness of a female servant (7:15-20).
- V. David _____ to a safer position and Ahithophel, seeing the writing on the wall, kills himself (7:21-23).

Psalms 16:8-11