

THE MAN GETS A WOMAN Genesis 2:18-25

III. GOD'S COMPANION FOR MAN (2:18-25)

A. God made the woman to be the ideal counterpart for the man (18-23)

1. Though created and placed in the garden, the man is still _____ (18)

a. God said "it is not good that the man is " _____"

(1) God's plan of creation was for the man to be _____ and to _____

(2) God is relational and He created us for _____

b. So God said He will make a _____ for the man

(1) The woman will become an indispensable _____ for the man

(2) The woman will be the ideal _____ to the man

(a) They are together made in the image and likeness of God

(b) They together have dominion over all the earth

2. God uses the naming of the animals to help Adam see his need (19-20)

a. The forming of animals is related to _____ of a helper

(1) Adam concludes that no animal can _____ this need

(a) God " _____" the animals to Adam

(b) Not one animal was found to be suitable for this need

(2) Adam is _____ to be fruitful and multiply the earth

b. Adam names the animals showing he was created with _____ abilities

3. God Makes the woman from out of the man's _____ (21-22)
 - (a) Adam is put into a deep sleep showing his _____ in the divine provision
 - (b) God “ _____ ” her to the man
 - (c) Reflecting on the parallels to Jesus Christ . . .

4. Adam jubilantly _____ with the woman (23)
 - a. Adam _____ that the women is the fulfillment of his need
 - b. Adam recites a _____
 - c. Adam _____ her “ _____ ”

B. Epilogue – God institutes marriage (24-25)

1. The _____ of marriage
 - a. The man _____ his father and mother
 - b. And is _____ to his wife

2. The _____ of marriage
 - a. The two become _____
 - b. They are naked and not _____

The woman was made _____ man

The woman was made _____ man

The woman was given _____ man

The woman was named _____ man