

1 Peter 4:9

Affirm, Share, Serve - The "One Anothers" in the Church

Sharing One Another's Goods, Space, and Time

Sermon Outline for August 9, 2015

By Pastor Dennis R. Tuuri

1 Peter 4:9 Be hospitable to one another without grumbling.

Intro – Portland Architecture and the Three Sets of Community Building Practices (Trinity)

I. 1 Peter 4:9 – Commanded Grumble-less Hospitality, Implying the Sharing of:

- A. Space
- B. Goods
- C. Time

Rom. 12:10 (NASB) Be Devoted

II. Related Texts

- A. Gal. 6:9, 10 – Doing Good
Bonifacius by Cotton Mather (1710)

Physicians and the Christian Sabbath

Amsterdam Alms Boxes and Key-bearing Deacons

- B. 2 Thes. 3:10-14 Preparation for Doing Good (More Mather)
- C. 1 John 3:14-24 - Sharing, Love, and Assurance
- D. James 2:14-17; Luke 3:9-11 – “Workless Faith Is Worthless Faith” (Mather Again)
- E. Matt. 25:31-26:1 - Sheep, Goats, and Sharing Resources

Conclusion – Church Directory Again

Sharing and the Surprisingly Abundant Trinitarian Life

Children's Sermon Notes for August 9th, Dt. 4:5-9

1. Today we move from _____ to Share.
2. The 3rd Practice will be _____.
3. We do hospitality when we invite folks to our _____.
4. This takes _____.
5. We bring them into our _____, which can feel awkward.
6. We make them feel like _____.
7. We are to _____ at this!
8. We are to _____ to other RCCers.
9. Pastor Tuuri talked about a book by _____ Mather.
10. _____ had the keys to the alms boxes in homes
in Amsterdam.
11. To get ready to do good and share, I will learn a _____ that pays.
12. James says faith without sharing with others is _____.
13. Ask your mom or dad who you should share with this week.
14. When we share our time, space, and stuff, we are really
_____!

Sharing One Another's Space, Goods and Time

