

“AND AS FOR ME,...” Part 2: The Nations

JONAH 1:1-4:11

I. GOD AND HIS PROPHET INTERACT

- A. God's command
- B. The prophet's response
- C. God's reboot and the prophet's response
- D. Back on track with a potent message: the prophet's message is not His own but is assisted by the power of God
- E. God's compassion at work; not just a theory or concept
- F. The prophet's great displeasure and anger; “disappointed” that God keeps His Word in line with His character Exodus 34:6,7; Jonah 4:1-4

II. GOD AND THE NATIONS

- A. No nations until after the Flood and in response to the Tower of Babel What did the fruit of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil change in us?
- B. Nations as used in the Scriptures usually refers to those families that grew to tribes that grew to nations by the work of God in them.
  - 1. A distinct family line with a distinct language
  - 2. A designated territory in which to carry out the command given through Noah to all people
  - 3. A distinct guardian and mentor from the sons of God, the elohim of the divine counsel who was to guide those people to seek the Lord; to teach them good and evil; to judge among them

4. Most of the time it is distinct from Israel. Though Israel is a nation it is in a different relationship with God and is not included in the term
- C. God's character in Ex 34:6-7 in how he relates to the nations
1. Sovereign: Divine providence in their living; grants them self-governance and holds them responsible for their actions; uses them to judge other nations for their sinfulness; judges them for the manner it is carried out
  2. Compassionate: As shown here at Nineveh He is compassionate with even the wicked when in repentance; Abraham's prayer for Sodom
  3. Gracious: Common grace is shown by Him to every nation
  4. Slow to anger: God shows His longsuffering by the amount of time it takes Him to be angry enough to act in anger
  5. Covenant loyalty and truth: With those for whom He has a covenant He will not move from His words to them and He is faithful to keep it with them. He wastes no words with His covenant
  6. Forgiving, just, but unrelenting: He forgives the contrite but will in no way clear the unrepentant (guilty)
- D. God is going to bring all nations into judgment at that final day and Israel will be the last standing
