

ISAIAH
God's Word To Babylon
Isaiah 13:1-22

Mac Williams, Pastor
August 16, 2015

1. God's word to Babylon reminds us that God is sovereign over all nations and over all of

_____.

"That these prophecies appear in the Biblical book of Isaiah was not for the benefit of the Babylonians but for the people of God. From them they would learn that the hostile power of the world in its most powerful manifestation would finally be brought to ignominious defeat and ruin. No _____ that sets itself against God, be it as haughty and pretentious as was Babylonia, can prevail." - E.J. Young

2. God would summon the armies of the Medes to be the instruments by which He would express His _____ toward Babylon.

"Whatever attempts may be made by wicked men, yet they will accomplish nothing but what the Lord has _____." - John Calvin

3. The people of Babylon would suffer greatly under God's burning anger for their _____.

a. The wrath of God is _____.

b. The just punishment for sin is _____.

c. Babylon, a glorious city, suffered a definitive and _____ destruction in the day of the Lord.

1) The destruction _____.

2) The destruction _____.