1. Believers are encouraged to come repeatedly to the Lord for understanding of the Word, deliverance, and a heart of praise that continues to bubble up before the Lord.

- a. Believers should bring their deepest heart _____ to the Lord and trust Him for biblical insight regarding trials.
- b. Believers should humbly petition the Lord for _____ from their adversaries.
- c. The Lord enables believers to give great _____ to Him for both His personal instruction and His works of providence on their behalf.

2. Believers are encouraged to come repeatedly to the Lord for help, a deepening understanding of the Lord's salvation, and a reviving of soul for God's glory.

- a. Believers trust the Lord to be always ready to give them the _____ they need to honor Him.

b. God's _____ is such a glorious thing that believers are always growing in their appreciation for what the Lord has done and will continue to do in their lives.

c. Believers must regularly come to the Lord to _____ their souls so they can live for His glory.

3. Believers are encouraged to regularly confess their sins before the Lord and trust that He will seek after His servant.

"Verse 176 shows us how deeply conscious the writer was of the perfection of the Law and of his utter _____ to fulfill its demands in his own strength. Only God the giver of the Law can enable His servant to keep it." - O.T. Allis
