Bottom Line:

God desires believers to demonstrate some key qualities as they seek to follow Him. These qualities reflect the person of God and His greatness in our lives!

1. God requires us to do _____.
Micah 6:8

“Justice” defined:

Lifestyle of _____, fairness, and defending the oppressed with the intent purpose of demonstrating the heart and character of God.

“Do” justly

A. _____-centered

B. Fairness-oriented

C. _____ applied
(double standard rejected)

D. Concern for the oppressed application

E. _____ to be like Christ

2. God requires us to love _____.
Micah 6:8

“Mercy” defined:

Compassion & steadfast LOVE that responds with help to those in need, protecting those who are defenseless, and forgiving those who have wronged you.

3. God requires us to walk _____ with Him.
Micah 6:8

“Humbly with your God”

A. _____ – God deserves all of me

B. Submission – I will follow “all” of God

C. _____ – view others as more important

D. Supremacy – nothing else rivals my love for God

Walk humbly...

- when you are spiritually strong
- when life’s responsibilities make you busy
- when you are corrected
- in all your motives
- studying God's Word
- applying God’s Word
- through your trials
- in your successes / failures
- in your relationships with others
- when dealing with those who have wronged you
