ACTS 10:23-11:18

Context: At the beginning of Acts 10, God began the process of breaking down the walls between Jews and Gentiles by sending a vision to Peter. This passage completes that narrative by showing how Peter obeyed God and took the Gospel to Cornelius and the Gentiles.

What was God doing?

1. Revealing his heart to Peter (23-35)
2. Spreading the gospel to the Gentiles (36-43)
3. Confirming his work through the “Gentile Pentecost” (44-48)
4. Unifying two formerly separate peoples (11:1-18)

Key to the meaning of the narrative: _____

What does it take for us to work with God rather than against Him?

1. Grasp and embrace God’s heart and plan for _____.

Where is that revealed? _____

2. Be willing to step out of your _____.
3. Go to _____ and share the Word of God.
 - People— _____
 - People different than you— _____
