

“The Resurrection of a Nation”

Ezekiel 37:1-14

- I. Ezekiel has a _____ in the Spirit (37:1).
- a. The dryness, denoting the thorough _____ of these bones, is noted by Ezekiel as God inquires of him whether these bones could _____ again (37:1b-3).

Ephesians 2:1-3; Deuteronomy 28:25-26; Ezekiel 11:13

- b. Ezekiel is commanded to prophesy to the _____ (37:4-6).

- II. Ezekiel is next commanded to prophesy to the _____ (37:7).

- a. Ezekiel preached, the breath came, and _____ entered the newly-formed bodies (37:10).

Genesis 2:15

- b. The vision of the bones coming to life is a vision of _____, a dead _____, being resurrected to life by God in order to walk with Him and to know Him (37:11-14).

Ephesians 2:1-10