

A GOOD WORK WORTH REMEMBERING!
(Mark 14:3-9)

- Ephesians 2:8-10
 - The historical context is _____.
 - The 3 stages of the story involve:
 - a. The pouring of the flask on _____ by _____, (14:3)
 - b. The sharp criticism against her by the _____ led by _____, (14:4-5)
 - c. The rebuke and proper perspective of this event by the _____, (14:6-9)
1. We need to learn to do _____ we do _____ and not unto men, as we will one day give a personal account to Him. (14:3a; Col.3:23-24; 2 Cor.5:9-10)
 2. God uses willing and usable servants, and _____ they yield or offer to Him, whether _____. (14:3b; Rom.12:1-2)
 3. You can expect to be _____ at times, and even _____ by others, even fellow-believers, in your service to the Lord. (14:4; 1 Cor.4:1-5)
 4. Jesus Christ comes to the defense of the wrongly criticized and accepts their acts of _____ to Him as a “_____”. (14:6)
 5. We need to discern between the _____ and the _____ in our investment of time and resources as opportunities to minister are not _____. (14:7)

6. The difference between the 'spirit of a servant' versus just 'being a servant' is that those with a servant's heart _____ . (14:8)

7. Mary's act of loving devotion to Jesus Christ was:

a. A _____ work (14:3)

b. A _____ work (14:4-5)

c. A _____ work (14:6)

d. A _____ work (14:7)

e. An _____ work (14:8a)

f. A _____ work (14:9)

... all done out of love for Jesus Christ in view of _____ . (14:8b)

• How does this apply to you ...

... as a believer?

... as an unbeliever?