

Lamb in the Midst of the Throne

As the Apostle continues his view of heaven, he describes a book, a Lamb, and a song. The _____ will be the center piece throughout the balance of this epistle.

THE LAMB

* His _____ — Two Messianic titles are given: _____ of tribe of Juda (Gen. 49.8-10) and _____ of _____ (Isa. 11.1, Jer. 23.5-6, 33.15-17, Rom. 1.3). As the Lion of Judah, He is to be viewed as the _____ of a women (Gen. 3.15, Gal. 4.4) of the _____ of Shem (Gen. 9.32), of the _____ of Abraham (Gen. 12.1-3) and of the _____ of Judah (Heb. 7.14). Though of the Tribe of Judah, not all of those descendants would be of David's household, but this One certainly is (Luke 1.32-33). Yet, He is also David's _____ (Matt. 22.41, Psalm 110.1).

* His _____ — This worthy One "hath prevailed." (v. 5) It was His by right of _____. It was His by right of _____. It would be His by right of _____, for He shall take it. Unredeemed man has refused, rejected, and replaced Him, but He shall _____!

* His _____ — When John looks, he sees a Lamb (little Lamb). He is referred to in Scripture as a Lamb in OT (Isa. 53.7, Jer. 11.9) and in the NT (John 1.29,36, Acts 8.32, I Pet. 1.19). Yet, in Revelations, this will be His description on 27 occasions. Seven _____ — The horns in Scripture refer to _____ and reigning _____ (I Sam. 2.10, Psa. 75.10, Zech. 1.18-19). This is His power on full display. Seven _____ — This is His perfect omniscience by which He is _____ (Zech 3.8-9, 4.10). Seven _____ — This was seen in the previous chapter as lamps in connection with the _____. These Spirits describe the Holy Spirit in all His completeness. Now this Spirit(s) are sent to search the _____ for unbelievers (John 16.8-9)

* His _____ — This Lamb came and took the book. This marks the beginning of the end of _____ domination (Dan. 7.13-14). It denotes the ending of _____ idolatry and apostacy. It begins the concluding of ecumenical _____. It marks the timeline to the concluding days of Satan's _____.
