QUESTIONS and APPLICATION:

Applying God's Word to our Head (What does God want me to know?), to our Heart (What does God want me to desire/value?), and to our Hands (What does God want me to do?).

1. What is controlling our responses to our present circumstances? How is our knowledge of God effecting our daily decisions?
2. Why is it hard to embrace the certainty and diversity of trials with Joy? What does that reveal about our knowledge of God?
3. Read 1 Peter 1:3-8. Why are trials necessary?
4. What does FAITH enable us to know about our trials? What does FAITH cause us to long for the midst of our trials? What are you longing for in the midst of your present trial?
5. What keeps us from asking God for wisdom? Why do we struggle with doubts about God's goodness?
6. What does it mean to be double-minded and what is the result?
7. How do the trials of life help us regardless of our personal means?
8. What does it mean to be blessed? How are we blessed through trials?
9. Read Proverbs 19:3. Why are we so prone to doing this?
10. How are we lured and enticed by sin? How should our knowledge of God effect how we think about sin?
11. How should the knowledge of God (v. 17-18) direct our hearts/minds in response to our trials?
