

Isaiah 13-27 – The Joyful End of Judgment

- I. Oracles of Judgment Detailing God's Anger (Isaiah 13-24)
– Encouraging Repentance.
 - A. Judgment upon Individual Nations (13-23)
 1. Oracle of punishment declared against Babylon (Chapter 13 – 14:23).
 2. Oracle of punishment declared against Assyria (14:24-28).
 3. Oracle of punishment declared against Philistia (14:29-32).
 4. Oracle of punishment declared against Moab (15-16).
 5. Oracle of punishment declared against Damascus (chapter 17).
 6. Oracle of punishment declared against Cush (Chapter 18).
 7. Oracle of punishment declared against Egypt (Chapter 19)
 8. Oracle of punishment declared against Egypt and Cush (Chapter 20).
 9. Oracle of punishment declared against Babylon (Chapter 21:1-10).
 10. Oracle of punishment declared against Edom (Chapter 21:11-12).
 11. Oracle of punishment declared against Arabia (Chapter 21:13-17).
 12. Oracle of punishment declared against Jerusalem (Chapter 22).
 13. Oracle of punishment declared against Tyre (Chapter 23).

B. Judgment upon All Nations (Chapter 24)

II. Songs of Praise Displaying God's Mercy (Chapters 25-27)
– Encouraging worship.

A. Isaiah's Meditation of Praise (Chapter 25)

1. God is sovereign in strength (25:1-5).

- An expression of thanks for God's sovereign
- A example of God's sovereign strength (25:2)

- A reason to thank God for His sovereign strength (25:3-5).

2. God is strong in salvation (25:6-12).

- A Huge Banquet of Joy for Humanity (v. 6).

- A huge banquet of death for God (v. 7-8).

3. God is strong in salvation (25:6-12).

B. Judah's Song of Trust (Chapter 26).

C. God's Song of Triumph (Chapter 27).