

DEUTERONOMY

God Reminding His People...In Christ

Promotion LORD's Day 2020

Deuteronomy 31:12-13

PASTOR'S PRAYER

Almighty Father, You are our Creator and Deliverer. You are making us holy and leading us. This morning you are reminding us of these things. Thank you, LORD, for assembling us here this morning to hear your Word. Your mercy and kindness brings us here again this morning to remind us of who you are and who we are in relation to you. We confess that our ears seldom hear the truths of your Word. We confess that our hearts seldom experience the fear of God that your Word is to produce. We confess that our obedience is often half-hearted and occasional instead of careful and consistent. Lord, we confess that our children are quick to follow our sin in these areas. Lord, give us ears to hear your truth. Lord, give us hearts to fear you rightly. Lord, cause us to be careful to observe and obey your commands for our good and for your glory. Lord, cause our children to hope in you, trust in the cross and love the saints. We ask these things this morning for your name's sake and for your renown. Amen & Amen.

OUTLINE

Deuteronomy 31:12-13

1. Why do we Assemble?
2. Why do we Assemble with our Children?

Central Textual Truth

Moses calls God's people to assemble to hear God's Law.

Central Sermon Aim

I want SGBC to prize assembling with our children to hear the gospel.
