

ACTS

The Hope of the Resurrection Acts 24:1-21

Mac Williams, Pastor
August 28, 2022

1. Paul stood before Felix, the Roman governor of Judea, to be accused by the Jewish leadership and to state his defense against their charges.

“There is a striking _____ here between the order and fairness of this Roman process, though conducted by a wicked man, and the passionate confusion of the Sanhedrin, although composed of Priests, Scribes, and Elders of the Jewish people.”
- J.A. Alexander

2. Paul made it very clear that in embracing the Way, he was serving and worshiping the _____ of Old Testament Judaism.

- a. As a Christian who was Jewish, Paul traveled to Jerusalem to _____ the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

- b. As a Christian who was Jewish:

- 1) Paul believed everything in the Mosaic _____.

- 2) Paul believed all that was written in the _____.

- 3) Paul believed there would certainly be a _____ of both the righteous and the wicked and lived his life in light of the judgment to come.

3. Paul understood the importance of the resurrection if there was to be any true _____ in life and death.

- a. It is Jesus' resurrection from the dead that confirmed He was the _____ and fully accomplished salvation for all who would believe in Him.

- b. It is Jesus' resurrection from the dead that guarantees the glorification of every believer with _____ that are incorruptible, spiritual, and immortal after the likeness of Christ.