Psalm 85:1-7	Tune: Contemplation, #44

To be strong in the power of the Lord's might implies two acts of faith.

First, a settled, firm persuasion that the Lord is almighty in power . . .

*Second, to believe that this almighty power of God
is engaged for [faith's] defense, so as to bear up in the midst of all trials
and temptations undauntingly, leaning on the arm of God Almighty . . .*

The dear love He bears toward His saints engages His power.

He that has God's heart cannot lack His arm.

William Gurnall (17th century English Puritan)

Offerings are collected on the literature table.

OUR CHURCH

We are a congregation of the Free Church of Scotland (Continuing), which has a presbytery in North America. The Free Church traces its historical roots back to the Protestant Reformation in Scotland, which began in 1560. The same biblical truths and spiritual identity have been maintained to the present day. Our doctrinal standards are the original 17th century version of the Westminster Confession of Faith and Larger and Shorter Catechisms. Further detailed information about our doctrine, worship, government, and practice are available on the book table and in the church library.
