1. Isaiah was a man who had a genuine heart for God.

- a. Isaiah humbly honored the Lord as the _____
One of Israel.

“As long as Isaiah could compare himself to other mortals, he was able to sustain a lofty opinion of his own character. The instant he measured himself by the ultimate standard, he was destroyed—morally and spiritually annihilated. He was undone.” - R.C. Sproul

- b. Isaiah saw clearly the need for genuine _____, so he was appalled at false and idolatrous worship.

2. Isaiah had a love and vision for the _____ of God.

- a. Isaiah regularly encouraged the small _____ in Judah who followed the Lord to continue to trust Him.
- b. Isaiah had a _____ for the people of God as the new Jerusalem that would spread to all the nations of the world.

3. Isaiah understood clearly that it is the Lord who _____.

- a. Isaiah presents the _____ of God as the Messiah, the one who would die for sinners as a substitute.

“Isaiah could not have better expressed the infinite love of Christ toward us than by declaring that He takes the highest delight in our salvation, and that He rests in it as the fruit of His labors.” - John Calvin

- b. Isaiah invites _____ to come to the Lord for salvation.

4. Isaiah fully trusted God’s sovereign power and wisdom.

- a. Isaiah recognized that God _____ over all nations.
- b. Isaiah knew that the Lord would accomplish His purpose no matter how difficult it seemed.
- c. Isaiah was enabled to trust God whether the outward circumstances were good or _____.
- d. Isaiah was enabled to live his life with a courageous _____ to the Lord.
