1. “The Way” speaks of the Christian faith.

- a. Faith in Jesus as the Christ is the only _____ for any person to be in a right relationship with God.
- b. The Christian faith is fully consistent with the Law and the Prophets of the _____ Scriptures.

2. To embrace the Way, a person needs to understand how desperately they _____ the Way.

- a. The Lord requires that every person live a life of perfect _____.
- b. The Lord requires that every person live a _____, self-controlled life.
- c. The Lord has ordained that every person will appear before the judgment seat of Christ to give an _____ of their life.

3. The Lord has given the gift of _____ as an important help in one’s relationship with God.

“The proper actions or duties of conscience are twofold: to give testimony or to give judgment.” - William Perkins

- a. Paul modeled the use of conscience to give _____ regarding one’s faith and obedience to the Lord.
- b. Felix modeled the use of conscience to give _____ regarding one’s unbelief and disobedience to the Lord.

“When a man’s eyes are _____ to see the evil that is in sin and the eternal misery that follows it (sin and hell being linked together with such strong chains as nothing but the blood of Christ can loose), then no burden is like that of sin.” - John Flavel

- c. Tragically, Felix also models the sin of _____ to deal with one’s sin and refusing the Way as the only hope of being right with God.
