

Feedback Form for the New Series on Love in 1 Corinthians 13 (Pre-Survey)

PIN ____ (4 digits only, either last 4 of phone number or another 4 digit # you are sure you'll remember)

Middle initial ____

Above personal info will not be seen by Pastor Phil, but both fields are critical for before and after analysis

True and False Questions (answer by circling T for True, or F for False):

1. I have memorized most or all of 1 Corinthians 13:4-7 (T/F)
2. I can think of an example this year where I've forgiven someone by focusing on God's love (T/F)
3. I can think of an example this year where I asked forgiveness of someone I was unloving to (T/F)
4. I can think of an example this year where I put a Sunday message into practice in a specific way that I don't normally (T/F)

Scale questions, circle one of these: 1) strongly agree, 2) agree, 3) unsure, 4) disagree, 5) strongly disagree

5. I can explain the context in Corinth of what Paul is writes to address in 1 Corinthians 13 (1 / 2 / 3 / 4 / 5)
6. Unbelievers can love in the sense of what Paul is talking about in 1 Corinthians 13 (1 / 2 / 3 / 4 / 5)
7. I understand 1 Cor. 13:4-7 describes love with adjectives for what love IS and is NOT (1 / 2 / 3 / 4 / 5)
8. Biblical love doesn't involve or need feelings or emotions (1 / 2 / 3 / 4 / 5)
9. The key to understanding biblical love is knowing the different Greek words for love, and that agape by definition is always used of godly love in scripture (1 / 2 / 3 / 4 / 5)
10. When v. 5 says love "keeps no record of wrongs" (NIV), I feel confident I can help someone understand how that relates to forgiving someone who has wronged them often (1 / 2 / 3 / 4 / 5)
11. I feel confident I could help someone understand what it means that love "believes all" (v. 7), in relation to those who hurt them or are untrustworthy (1 / 2 / 3 / 4 / 5)
12. When I read the phrases in 1 Corinthians 13:4-7, I tend to meditate on the life of Jesus (1 / 2 / 3 / 4 / 5)
13. In the past couple months I can think of ways I've sought to pursue love in being patient or kind, or bearing or enduring sin (v. 4, 7) in ways I don't normally by nature (1 / 2 / 3 / 4 / 5)
14. In the past couple months I've been convicted of a sin in this text (ex: envy, pride, rudeness, self-seeking, irritable, resentful, etc.), and have sought to put off that sin (1 / 2 / 3 / 4 / 5)
15. In the last couple months, I've shared something about a Sunday message with another believer to encourage him or her further in the truth we heard (1 / 2 / 3 / 4 / 5)
16. I can think of at least one recent example where I have been spurred on to love by another believer from a truth we heard together in church (1 / 2 / 3 / 4 / 5)

Personal Questions (reminder that all questions will be treated anonymously, please answer honestly):

17. I pursue a relationship with God by reading my Bible for more than 5 minutes at a time, usually:
a) 0 days a week, b) 1-2 days a week, c) 3-4 days a week, d) 5 days a week, e) 6-7 days a week
18. An area that would help me as a listener to benefit more from the preaching is: (circle any that apply)
a) more illustrations b) more eye contact c) few minutes shorter in length
d) more simple explanation e) turning to related passages f) talking slower, pausing more
g) visual aids h) examples to make clearer i) examples from the world / culture
j) Other: _____ (circle either more or less for i) above)

Free form feedback: An area or question I hope will be covered in this series is ... (or any other comment)