Romans 3:10-13

"...as it is written: 'None is righteous, no, not one; no one understands; no one seeks for God. All have turned aside; together they have become worthless; no one does good, not even one.' Their throat is an open grave; they use their tongues to deceive."

The problem of being spiritually dead is resolved by God who makes us alive. The problem of being in our sins/trespases, is also resolved by God forgiving ALL of our sins. The problem of being uncircumcised in the flesh, is that Christ accomplishes a far greater circumcision.

Series: Colossians

Sermon: Colossians 2:14-15

1. Some Christians struggle with accepting that they have truly been fully forgiven by God. Why do you think this is, and what would you say to help them?

---

---

---

---

2. Read 2 Corinthians 2:14-16. In this passage Paul speaks of his living this life in “triumphal procession.” Which is most likely an analogy to the Roman war victories and processions. Does everyone enjoy Paul’s triumphal procession? What are the different reactions that he receives in this passage.

---

---

---

3. In what ways have you heard people, even professing Christians giving too much credit to Satan?

---

---

---

---

4. Read 1 John 3:4-10. What are the differences between those who have had Satan’s power and work destroyed by Christ in their lives, to those who have not?

---

---

---

---

---

---

5. A. According to 1 John 3:4-8 how are children of God and children of the Devil revealed?

---

B. Is this truth always immediately evident, or is it possible to have children of Satan and posing as children of God? Does this revelation sometimes take time to see? See 1 John 2:19.

---

---

6. A Christian man once said that every time he was harassed by an old sin that was previously confessed, he would simply say, “Nailed to the cross.” How could his words, or this concept be of help to you?
