

“So, You’re getting Older....What are you living for?”

Why talk about this subject?

What is a bucket list?

How do you as a Christian assess this idea and the term itself?

What does our culture teach us about work and retirement?

The key to a successful retirement, from Rev. Billy Graham’s latest book, Nearing Home (2011)

What kind of legacy should a Christian leave behind?

(Or should we even be asking such a question?)

As we examine this list, HOW do and will you practically leave this kind of legacy?

How do these ‘legacies’ of a Christian answer the challenges a retiree faces?

1. The legacy of forgiveness (Genesis 50:15-21)
2. The legacy of faith (Genesis 50:24-25; Hebrews 11:22)
3. The legacy of worship (verse 3 of “O Day of Rest and Gladness”; Psalm 27:4-5)
4. The legacy of “trust and obey” (Ecclesiastes 12, esp. verse 13)
5. The legacy of wisdom (Psalm 90:10-17)
6. The legacy of perseverance (Compare David with Solomon 1 Kings 2:1-4; 11:1-13)
7. The legacy of a continuing covenant (Psalm 78:5-8)
8. The legacy of a spiritual warrior (2 Timothy 4:6-8)
