- 1. All mankind is under God's _____ as a covenant because all mankind is under the headship of Adam.
- a. God's Law is good and holy; it shows man how to truly _____ God and people.
 - b. All mankind is under God's Law, therefore all have the obligation to _____ themselves before God by their law abiding life.
 - c. God's Law _____ man's sin and pronounces condemnation upon him.
 - d. God's Law actually _____ man to sin even more.
- 2. All believers are under God's _____ as a covenant because all believers are under the headship of Christ.
- a. Christ was born _____ the Law and obeyed it perfectly.

- b. It is _____ and through Christ that God the Father grants redemptive grace to all who believe.
- c. It is by God's grace in Christ that believers are _____—stand perfectly righteous—before God.
- d. It is by God's grace in Christ that believers have a new and transformed _____.
- e. It is by God's grace in Christ that believers are _____ from the dominion of sin and are instead slaves of righteousness.

“Grace is the sovereign will and power of God coming to expression for the deliverance of men from the servitude of sin. Because this is so, to be ‘under grace’ is the guarantee that _____ will not exercise the dominion.” - John Murray

“There is no closing with (sin) in the will, no embracing of it in the affections. Its workings are broken and wounded. O believers, you will never be willing captives to sin again; you may be captives, never subjects; sin may tyrannize, never reign.” - Samuel Bolton

“For although they are not under (the Law) as a covenant of works, either to be justified by it for their obedience or to be condemned by it for their disobedience, yet they are under it as the _____ of their new obedience, and they count it their exalted privilege and pleasure to be so.” - John Colquhoun
