

Intro: Jas 2:26b so faith without works is dead also. According to James, in order for faith to be valid, it must be seen in action. Good works, the way you live, speak, and what you do will be the evidence of faith. Satan has been confusing people about this for as long as people have been around. He causes some to believe that they can come to God by good works. If he is successful, they will be lost. With believers, he causes them to believe one of two extremes. He causes some to think that they need the good works to stay in good standing with God, (legalism). If he is successful, they will waste much of their life not walking in the Spirit and glorifying God. With others, he convinces them that works are not part of salvation, before or after and they can do anything, (license). Paul strongly taught the justification was by faith alone, but he also taught the we were saved unto good works. With Abel, we saw how one comes to God in worship. With Enoch, we saw how one walks with God. And now with Noah, we will see how one obeys God. Noah's faith was astounding in that he trusted God for around 100 years, in obedience building an ark for a flood, caused by rain that no one had seen to that point.

2. Being without excuse - having enough truth

a. natural revelation

i. Ro 1:19-20 because what may be known of God is manifest in them, for God has shown it to them. For since the creation of the world His invisible attributes are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even His eternal power and Godhead, so that they are without excuse, ii. Ps 19:1-6 The heavens declare the glory of God; And the firmament shows His handiwork. Day unto day utters speech, And night unto night reveals knowledge. There is no speech nor language Where their voice is not heard. Their line has gone out through all the earth, And their words to the end of the world. In them He has set a tabernacle for the sun, Which is like a bridegroom coming out of his chamber, And rejoices like a strong man to run its race. Its rising is from one end of heaven, And its circuit to the other end; And there is nothing hidden from its heat.

d. Today's sinners are missing the same warnings (mercy)

i. 2Ti 3:1-5 But know this, that in the last days perilous times will come: For men will be lovers of themselves, lovers of money, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, unloving, unforgiving, slanderers, without self-control, brutal, despisers of good, traitors, headstrong, haughty, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God, having a form of godliness but denying its power. And from such people turn away!

ii. Judgment is coming

- not a flood - Ge 9:15

- but fire - 2Pe 3:10 But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night, in which the heavens will pass away with a great noise, and the elements will melt with fervent heat; both the earth and the works that are in it will be burned up.

c. 1Jo 3:18-19 My little children, let us not love in word or in tongue, but in deed and in truth. And by this we know that we are of the truth, and shall assure our hearts before Him.
