

“BEING A RESTORED HUMAN”

“AND AS FOR ME,...”

Part 7: “Prayers from Sheol”

JONAH 2:1-10

I. DYING TO GET AWAY FROM GOD

- A. When disagreeing with God from a hardened heart of prejudice, sensibility exits the premises
- B. Going through the experience
- C. When r _____ strikes and f _____ comes to life
- D. Knock, knock, knockin’ on Sheol’s door
- E. Death - 3 days, 3 nights

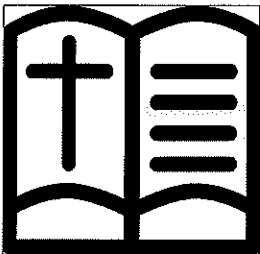

II. LOOKING DEATH IN THE FACE

A. A drowning man

1. The lungs function with air not water
2. Inhaled water, huge adrenaline kick in
3. Involuntary breath-holding for 2 minutes; pass out
4. Unconscious, not breathing, heart slows
5. Hypoxic convulsion, body turns blue, jerking erratically
6. Brain, heart and lungs un-revivable, cerebral hypoxia, clinical death
7. Total time: 10-12 minutes

B. A dead man in Sheol; observations

1. Still t _____ within himself
2. Able to p _____
3. What is Sheol?
 - a. The place the living part of the man went
 - b. U _____ the earth

- c. Horrible, dark, disorderly and silent or the place of comfort
- d. Never satisfied and always open-mouthed
- e. At least t_____ chambers: Abraham's bosom or paradise, hades and Tartarus, the abyss
- f. Seen as a p_____ with gates and bars from which there is no escape
- g. Jesus Christ and the gates of Sheol
(The ocean, seas, lakes and waters are the covering for Sheol - storm on Galilee)
Sheol will have to r_____ its prisoners
Jesus preaching there after death
Jesus leading c_____ captive
Things released from there in the last days

C. A resurrected man

1. He will see the temple again
2. As he died, he remembered the Lord
3. He prayed to God and was heard in the holy temple of God
4. He will sacrifice to God with the voice of thanksgiving
5. He will pay what he has vowed
6. Salvation belongs to the LORD for only He can deliver from Sheol; only He can bring back the dead from the Sheol
7. This is grace!

Today, we announce that Jesus is God's Son in the flesh and that He is the victor over death. He was dead and is alive! He delivers from sin and death and yes, Covid fears.