Grown-Ups In The Room Pt.16: “Barefoot And Pregnant!”

I Text:

Old Covenant: Amos 4:1-13

New Covenant: 1Peter 3:1-6

II Doctrine: Christian women are to be examples of femininity and humbleness. They are to soften the hearts of unbelieving Husbands through their behavior. Women should place more value in spiritual maturation, than outward beauty. It is not a sin for a Christian woman to be clean and effeminate in appearance. They are not to be obsessed with outward beauty. New covenant writers always go back to the foundational truths of the Old covenant. Peter alludes to Genesis and Sarah’s respect for Abraham, even in the way she addressed him.

III Comparing Scripture With Scripture:

- 1) Christian women are to be examples of femininity and humbleness. They are to soften the hearts of unbelieving Husbands through their behavior. (1Peter 3:1,2; Ephesians 5:20-24; Genesis 2:18-25; <https://www.ligonier.org/learn/articles/submit-one-another/>)
- 2) Women should place more value in spiritual maturation, than outward beauty. It is not a sin for a Christian woman to be clean and effeminate in appearance. They are not to be obsessed with outward beauty. (1Peter 3:3,4; Ezekiel 16:8-15)
- 3) New covenant writers always go back to the foundational truths of the Old covenant. Peter alludes to Genesis and Sarah’s respect for Abraham, even in the way she addressed him. (1Peter 3:5,6; Amos 4:1-13)
