

Do you want to go away?

John 6:60-71

This section speaks of a moment in the storyline of many peoples lives. They were following Jesus. But, as they heard His true message, they quit Him. It was a moment in time when they made a disastrous decision. As we come to the close of John 6 we see a rich testimony of spiritual defection and spiritual affection. It reveals characteristics of true disciples and false disciples who either say, "this is a hard saying," or, "Lord, to whom shall we go?"

I. The controversy, v60

II. Jesus answers the controversy, v61-65

1. Jesus questions the crowd, v61a

2. Jesus tells of a greater offense, v62

3. Jesus distinguishes between the Spirit and the flesh, v63a

4. Jesus explains their unbelief, v64-65

III. The desertion, v66

IV. Jesus questions His disciples, v67

V. Peter answers for the Twelve, v68-69

VI. Judas is exposed, v70

Words for Kids to listen for

False disciples

True disciples

Hard saying

Offend

Two ways

The Son of man ascend

The spirit gives life

Do you also want to go away?

Lord, where would we go?

You have the words of eternal life