

FINDING A REASON TO REJOICE – (ESPECIALLY DURING TRIALS)

9/22/2019

Message 28 in the series: Learning how to rejoice in the Lord always

Text: Philippians 4:4-5

Theme: How can we rejoice when there doesn't seem to be anything to be happy about?

I. When you walk in the flesh you produce frustration – You find a reason to complain

II. When you walk in the Spirit you produce faith – You find a reason to rejoice

Christ's prayer, "O my Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from Me..." (Matt 26:39). But, I thought all things are possible
w/ God!

He could have called 10,000 angels...

So why did He pray, "If Thou be willing, remove this cup from Me..."

The thought that we then get caught up in that leads to many questions is, "Will He do this for me?" Or "Why isn't He doing this for me?" OR "Why isn't He answering MY prayer?"

Are we praying for the right thing so that He can be seen?

So then, why do we rejoice always?

FINDING A REASON TO REJOICE – (ESPECIALLY DURING TRIALS)

9/22/2019

Message 28 in the series: Learning how to rejoice in the Lord always

Text: Philippians 4:4-5

Theme: How can we rejoice when there doesn't seem to be anything to be happy about?

I. When you walk in the flesh you produce frustration – You find
a reason to complain

II. When you walk in the Spirit you produce faith – You find a reason to rejoice

Christ's prayer, "O my Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from Me..." (Matt 26:39). But, I thought all things are possible
w/ God!

He could have called 10,000 angels...

So why did He pray, "If Thou be willing, remove this cup from Me..."

The thought that we then get caught up in that leads to many questions is, "Will He do this for me?" Or "Why isn't He doing this for me?" OR "Why isn't He answering MY prayer?"

Are we praying for the right thing so that He can be seen?

So then, why do we rejoice always?