

Abraham and the Son's Resurrection
Sunday morning, September 24, 2017
Genesis 22:1–18; 2 Chronicles 3

- I. The Son's Sacrifice of Death
 - A. The Son's Role in the Sacrifice
 - 1. Who the Son Is: the Son's Uniqueness Gen. 22:2
 - 2. What the Son Did: the Son's Obedience Gen. 22:6, 7, 9
 - B. The Father's Role in the Sacrifice
 - 1. Whom God Required from Abraham—Isaac's Life
 - 2. What God Required from Abraham—Isaac's Sacrifice Gen. 22:2
 - 3. Where God Required this from Abraham—Mt. Moriah Gen. 22:2
2 Chron. 3:1; 1 Chron 21:1; Rom. 8:32; Jn. 3:16
- II. The Son's Resurrection from Death
 - A. The Son's Resurrection Is the Hope of the Believer
 - 1. As Abraham Believed in the Resurrection of His Beloved Son
Gen. 21:12; 22:5; Heb. 11:17
 - 2. So, We Believe in the Resurrection of God's Beloved Son
Jn. 8:56; 1 Cor. 15:3, 14, 17
 - B. The Son's Resurrection Is the Provision of God
 - 1. God Provided the Lamb-substitute for Abraham Gen. 22:8, 13–14
 - 2. God Provides the Lamb-substitute for You
 - C. The Son's Resurrection Is the Guarantee of the Covenant
 - 1. When Was the Covenant Confirmed? Gen. 22:15, 18
 - 2. How Was the Covenant Confirmed? Gen. 22:15, 16; Heb. 6:17