

If You Love Me, Keep My Commandments John 14:15-22

We are in the Upper room discourse which stretches from chapter 13-17. Jesus is in the upper room delivering his last words, describing what kind of disciples He is sending into the world, and what kind of Church He is establishing. I would like for you take note of two words: commandments and Love.

Remember Chapter 13

Remember Chapter 14:1-14

14:1-4, A promise of heaven

14:5-7 How to get to heaven

14:8-31 How to live until you get to heaven

I. If you love me, keep My commandments, 14:15

Love and obedience cannot be separated

The definition of a Christian

Jesus is quoting Moses in Deuteronomy

Deuteronomy – the book that Jesus loved

How should we interpret the laws of God?

How should we talk about the Law of God?
