TEXT: Ecclesiastes 7:26 And I find more bitter than death the woman, whose heart is snares and nets, and her hands as bands: whoso pleaseth God shall escape from her; but the sinner shall be taken by her.

27 Behold, this have I found, saith the preacher, counting one by one, to find out the account:

28 Which yet my soul seeketh, but I find not: one man among a thousand have I found; but a woman among all those have I not found.

29 Lo, this only have I found, that God hath made man upright; but they have sought out many inventions.

8:1 Who is as the wise man? and who knoweth the interpretation of a thing?...

1 Corinthians 11:3 But I would have you know, that the head of every man is Christ; and the head of the woman is the man; and the head of Christ is God.

1 Timothy 2:11 Let the woman learn in silence with all subjection.

12 But I suffer not a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence.

13 For Adam was first formed, then Eve.

14 And Adam was not deceived, but the woman being deceived was in the transgression.

15 Notwithstanding she shall be saved in childbearing, if they continue in faith and charity and holiness with sobriety.

1 Corinthians 12:21 And the eye cannot say unto the hand, I have no need of thee: nor again the head to the feet, I have no need of you.

1 Corinthians 11:11 Nevertheless neither is the man without the woman, neither the woman without the man, in the Lord.

Psalms 12:1 Help, LORD; for the godly man ceaseth; for the faithful fail from among the children of men.

Proverbs 20:6 Most men will proclaim every one his own goodness: but a faithful man who can find?

Proverbs 31:10 Who can find a virtuous woman? for her price is far above rubies.

Romans 1:26 For this cause God gave them up unto vile affections: for even their women did change the natural use into that which is against nature:

Judges 13:22 And Manoah said unto his wife, We shall surely die, because we have seen God.

23 But his wife said unto him, If the LORD were pleased to kill us, he would not have received a burnt offering and a meat offering at our hands, neither would he have shewed us all these things, nor would as at this time have told us such things as these.

Job 33:6 Behold, I am according to thy wish in God's stead: I also am formed out of the clay.

7 Behold, my terror shall not make thee afraid, neither shall my hand be heavy upon thee.

14 For God speaketh once, yea twice, yet man perceiveth it not...

19 He is chastened also with pain upon his bed...

17 That he may withdraw man from his purpose, and hide pride from man.

18 He keepeth back his soul from the pit...

23 If there be a messenger with him, an interpreter, one among a thousand, to shew unto man his uprightness:

33:27 He looketh upon men, and if any say, I have sinned, and perverted that which was right, and it profited me not;

28 He will deliver his soul from going into the pit, and his life shall see the light.

33...hearken unto me: hold thy peace, and I shall teach thee wisdom.

Ecclesiastes 7:15 All things have I seen in the days of my vanity: there is a just man that perisheth in his righteousness, and there is a wicked man that longeth his life in his wickedness.

Ecclesiastes 8:11 Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil.

12 Though a sinner do evil an hundred times, and his days be prolonged, yet surely I know that it shall be well with them that fear God, which fear before him:

13 But it shall not be well with the wicked, neither shall he prolong his days, which are as a shadow; because he feareth not before God.

14 There is a vanity which is done upon the earth; that there be just men, unto whom it happeneth according to the work of the wicked; again, there be wicked men, to whom it happeneth according to the work of the righteous: I said that this also is vanity.

1 Kings 11:4 For it came to pass, when Solomon was old, that his wives turned away his heart after other gods: and his heart was not perfect with the LORD his God, as was the heart of David his father.

1 King 2:13 And Adonijah the son of Haggith came to Bathsheba the mother of Solomon. And she said, Comest thou peaceably? And he said, Peaceably.

14 He said moreover, I have somewhat to say unto thee. And she said, Say on.

15 And he said, Thou knowest that the kingdom was mine, and that all Israel set their faces on me, that I should reign: howbeit the kingdom is turned about, and is become my brother's: for it was his from the LORD.

16 And now I ask one petition of thee, deny me not. And she said unto him, Say on.

17 And he said, Speak, I pray thee, unto Solomon the king, (for he will not say thee nay,) that he give me Abishag the Shunammite to wife.

18 And Bathsheba said, Well; I will speak for thee unto the king.

1 Thessalonians 2:7 But we were gentle among you, even as a nurse cherisheth her children:

11 As ye know how we exhorted and comforted and charged every one of you, as a father doth his children,

12 That ye would walk worthy of God, who hath called you unto his kingdom and glory.

"Man is bold – woman is beautiful...Man labors in the field – woman at home. Man has a daring heart – woman, a tender, loving one...Man has justice – woman mercy...while man combats with the enemy...woman is waiting...to sweeten his existence...Without woman, man would be rude, gross, solitary. Woman spreads around him the flowers of existence...Superior and inferior to man...they have stronger affections...No trait of character is more valuable in a female than the possession of a sweet temper. Home can never be made happy without it...She stood by the expiring Jesus...She was the last at His tomb...and the first to discover that He had burst the bars of death...She is seldom a leader in any project, but finds her peculiar and best attitude as helper..."

(The Royal Path of Life, 1881)

"In perception, woman is in general decidedly quicker than man...the subjective factor is larger in woman, and she sees things more from the standpoint of her own experience, wishes, and prejudices...She thinks more in terms of the concrete and individual...Men try to bring things under a general rule, without so much regard to the fitness or symmetry of the result. Women care less for general rules, and are inclined to look only to the immediate end... [Women] are less disturbed by inconsistency. Analysis is relatively distasteful to them, and they less readily comprehend the relation of the part to the whole... In language she is more apt than man. Girls learn to speak earlier than boys...In many kinds of routine work, especially that requiring patience, women are superior...laughing, crying, blushing, quickening of the heart-beat, are more common in woman, and in general her face is more mobile and witnesses more to her mental states...Women are more easily influenced by suggestion than men, and a larger percentage of them may be hypnotized...Sympathy, pity, and charity are stronger in woman, and she is more prominent in works that spring from these sentiments...Woman is more generous than man. Her maternal instincts lead her to lend her sympathy to the weak and helpless...seeing present rather than remote consequences, she feeds the pauper and pardons the criminal...Male criminals outnumber female criminals about six to one. Woman's sympathy and love, her physical weakness and timid nature, her domestic and quiet habits, ill adapt her to the criminal life. Morally bad women too usually find other more attractive fields open to them. Some forms of crime, indeed, such as murder by poisoning, domestic theft, and infanticide, are much more common among women. When women do become criminals their crimes are often marked by greater heinousness, cruelty, and depravity...The most marked moral superiority of woman appears in her altruism; her greatest moral defect in her untruthfulness...Woman's religious nature is stronger than man's..."

1 Timothy 4:7 But refuse profane and old wives' fables, and exercise thyself rather unto godliness.

*"Denying the Neuroscience of Sex Differences...*It is now abundantly clear to anyone honestly looking, that the variable of biological sex influences all levels of mammalian brain function...Gloria Steinem once called sex differences research 'anti-American crazy thinking.' Senior colleagues warned me as an untenured professor around the year 2000 that studying sex differences would be career suicide...tactics include magnifying or inventing problems with disfavored studies, ignoring even fatal problems with favored studies, dismissing what powerful animal research reveals about mammalian brains, hiding uncomfortable facts in footnotes, pretending not to be denying biologically based sex-influences on the brain while doing everything possible to deny them...So are female and male brains the same or different? We now know that the correct answer is 'yes'...The neuroscience behind this conclusion is now remarkably robust...No one seems to have a problem accepting that, on average, male and female bodies differ in many, many ways. Why is it surprising or unacceptable that this is true for the part of our body that we call 'brain'?...'Senior colleagues warned me as an untenured professor around the year 2000 that studying [gender] differences would be career suicide...Although some believe that sex differences in the brain are small...the average effect size...is no different from the average effect size found in any other large domain of neuroscience...It is now abundantly clear...that the variable of biological sex influences all levels of mammalian brain function...Most neuroscientists assumed that [brain] differences between males and females, if they exist at all, are not fundamental...Gradually however...we neuroscientists are seeing just how profoundly wrong - and in fact disproportionately harmful to women - that assumption was..." (Larry Cahill, <https://quillette.com>, March 29, 2019)

"We confirmed that typical females on average are more empathic, typical males on average are more systems-oriented...A recently released study from the university of Cambridge claims to show that male and female brains are clearly very different. In a huge study of over 600,000 people, the data obtained showed that men tend to be more analytical and 'systemic' while women tend to be more emotional and empathetic..." "Study: Women's Brains Are More Sensitive To Negative Emotions; React Differently Than Men's... Stereotypes of men always set them as the rational, cool-headed thinkers, while women are more sympathetic to the emotional plight of others. But are these categories unfounded? Maybe not entirely [according to a new study, published in Psychoneuroendocrinology]...[The researchers reported,]...'Greater emotional reactivity in women may explain many things, such as their being twice as likely to suffer from depression and anxiety disorders to men'...Previous research has also given credence to the theory that men and women respond to emotional stimuli differently...Overall, women reported being more reactive to the emotional images...Meanwhile, higher levels of testosterone were most frequently associated with lowered sensitivity to the images, while higher estrogen levels, regardless of the person's sex, almost always meant increased sensitivity...'A stronger connection between these [brain] areas in men suggests they have a more analytical than emotional approach when dealing with negative emotions'...said Stéphane Potvin, associate professor...'It is possible that women tend to focus more on the feelings generated by these stimuli, when men remain somewhat 'passive' toward negative emotions, trying to analyze the stimuli and their impact'..." (Medical Daily, Sept. 24, 2015)

Genesis 20:16 And unto Sarah he said, Behold, I have given thy brother a thousand pieces of silver: behold, he is to thee a covering of the eyes, unto all that are with thee, and with all other: thus she was reproved.

Isaiah 19:16 In that day shall Egypt be like unto women: and it shall be afraid and fear because of the shaking of the hand of the LORD of hosts, which he shaketh over it.

"Evidence suggests that there are differences in the capacity for empathy between males and females...Females are more prosocial, sympathetic, and empathetic than males, from childhood through adolescence (for reviews, see Chaplin and Aldao, 2013; Rose and Rudolph, 2006)..." ((Neurosci Biobehav Rev. 2014 Oct; 46(Pt 4): 604–627.))

"Recent studies indicate that gender may have a substantial influence on cognitive functions...Men and women appear to have different ways to encode memories, sense emotions, recognize faces, solve certain problems, and make decisions...by using [the designed 3D PCNN algorithm], we confirmed that the gender-related differences exist in the whole-brain...as well as in each specific brain regions. These gender-related brain structural differences might be related to gender differences in cognition, emotional control as well as neurological disorders." (Front Neurosci. 2019; 13: 185.)
