

Sermon Notes

Title: "The Gospel in Isaiah: The Spirit Poured Out"

Text: Isaiah 32:9-20

Theme: The Spirit has been poured out. The world may look like a mess, but it is still God's world, and He is making it new.

I. The Land of Judah Will Be _____ and _____ (9-14)

II. The _____ of the _____ Will
_____ the People and the Land (15-20)

III.

Applications

A. God's program of _____ is part and parcel with the
_____ of the Gospel and the
_____ of the nations.

B. The Spirit's _____ has begun now that
_____ has accomplished
_____.

C. As a Christian, I am a _____ in the
_____ of the world.

Questions to Discuss and Consider at Home or in Small Group:

1. Who are addressed because of their ease and comfort (v. 9)?
2. What will happen to change this condition of ease and comfort (vv. 10-13)?
3. What must this group of people do (vv. 11-12)?
4. What will happen to the land's defenses (v. 14)?
5. Will this dire condition last? What will bring about a change (v. 15a)?
6. What will happen to the land (v. 15b)?
7. There will be an important aspect of civil life restored. What is this (v. 16)?
8. When this important aspect of life returns, what will be the effect on the people (vv. 17-18)?
9. How long will this state of affairs last (v. 17b)?
10. Describe the contrast between those who rely on their own strength and wisdom and those who trust the LORD (vv. 19-20)?
11. What central feature of the New Covenant is vitally connected with the proclamation of the Gospel?
12. Is it legitimate to talk about the "renewal" of the world in light of all of the death, destruction, and evil that continues in this life?
13. How does God's program of renewal and transformation work?
14. What does it mean that you are a "new creation" in Christ through faith in Him and that all things are (becoming) new?
15. How are you a player in the transformation of the world?
