

For Me To Live is: _____

Philippians 1:20b-26

- I. The Pinpoint Perspective: What are you FOCUSING on? (1:6-11)
- II. The Perfect Perspective: How HAS God worked things together for good? (1:12-18)
- III. The Prophetic Perspective: God WILL work things together for good. (1:19-20)

- IV. The Purposeful Perspective: What is God's purpose for your life. (1:20b-26)

A. For to Me to Live is Christ

1. Does NOT Mean you Can't _____ life.
 - What is your personal relationship with God? God is my _____

 - What is God keeping from you? Ps. 84:11, John 10:10

2. Does NOT mean you have to _____ an apostle, a monk or a nun, a Pastor, or a missionary
 - Where is God leading you to witness for Him? Where is your 'Jerusalem'? Acts 1:8

 - What one thing does God require of me _____ Hebrews 11:6

3. Means by _____ a hope-filled life, we have an opportunity to magnify Christ (vs. 20)
 - How do I respond when in times of crises?

 - Does God really want to use me?

4. Means to _____ people's lives for eternity. (vs. 22)
 - Do I believe that God IS a REWARDER? Hebrews 11:6

 - What is my ultimate goal or aim in life? 2Cor. 5:9, Phil. 1:21

B. For to me to die is gain

1. Does NOT mean that we should _____ death because we hate life (22b-23)
 - What are the TRUTHS God says about you? Ps. 139:14, Jer. 29:11, Heb. 13:5, 1Cor. 10:13

2. Means that we will be _____ from our earthly burdens (23)
 - Although we now have struggles, Don't lose heart (2Cor. 4:16-5:9)

3. Means that at death, a believer goes _____ to be with Christ (23)

- You do not have to fear purgatory or being punished for your sins

4. Means die to ourselves and our wants and instead focus on _____ needs (24)

- Who is someone with a need that God has put on your heart?

C. For to me to live is Christ

1. Means we have the opportunity to _____ others' up (25)

- Where can you faithfully support the truth?

2. Means we have the opportunity to bring _____ to others, just by being _____ them (26)

- Who can you get together with just to spend time with them?