

MATTHEW:
THE GOSPEL
OF THE KINGDOM

Mercy from the Son of David

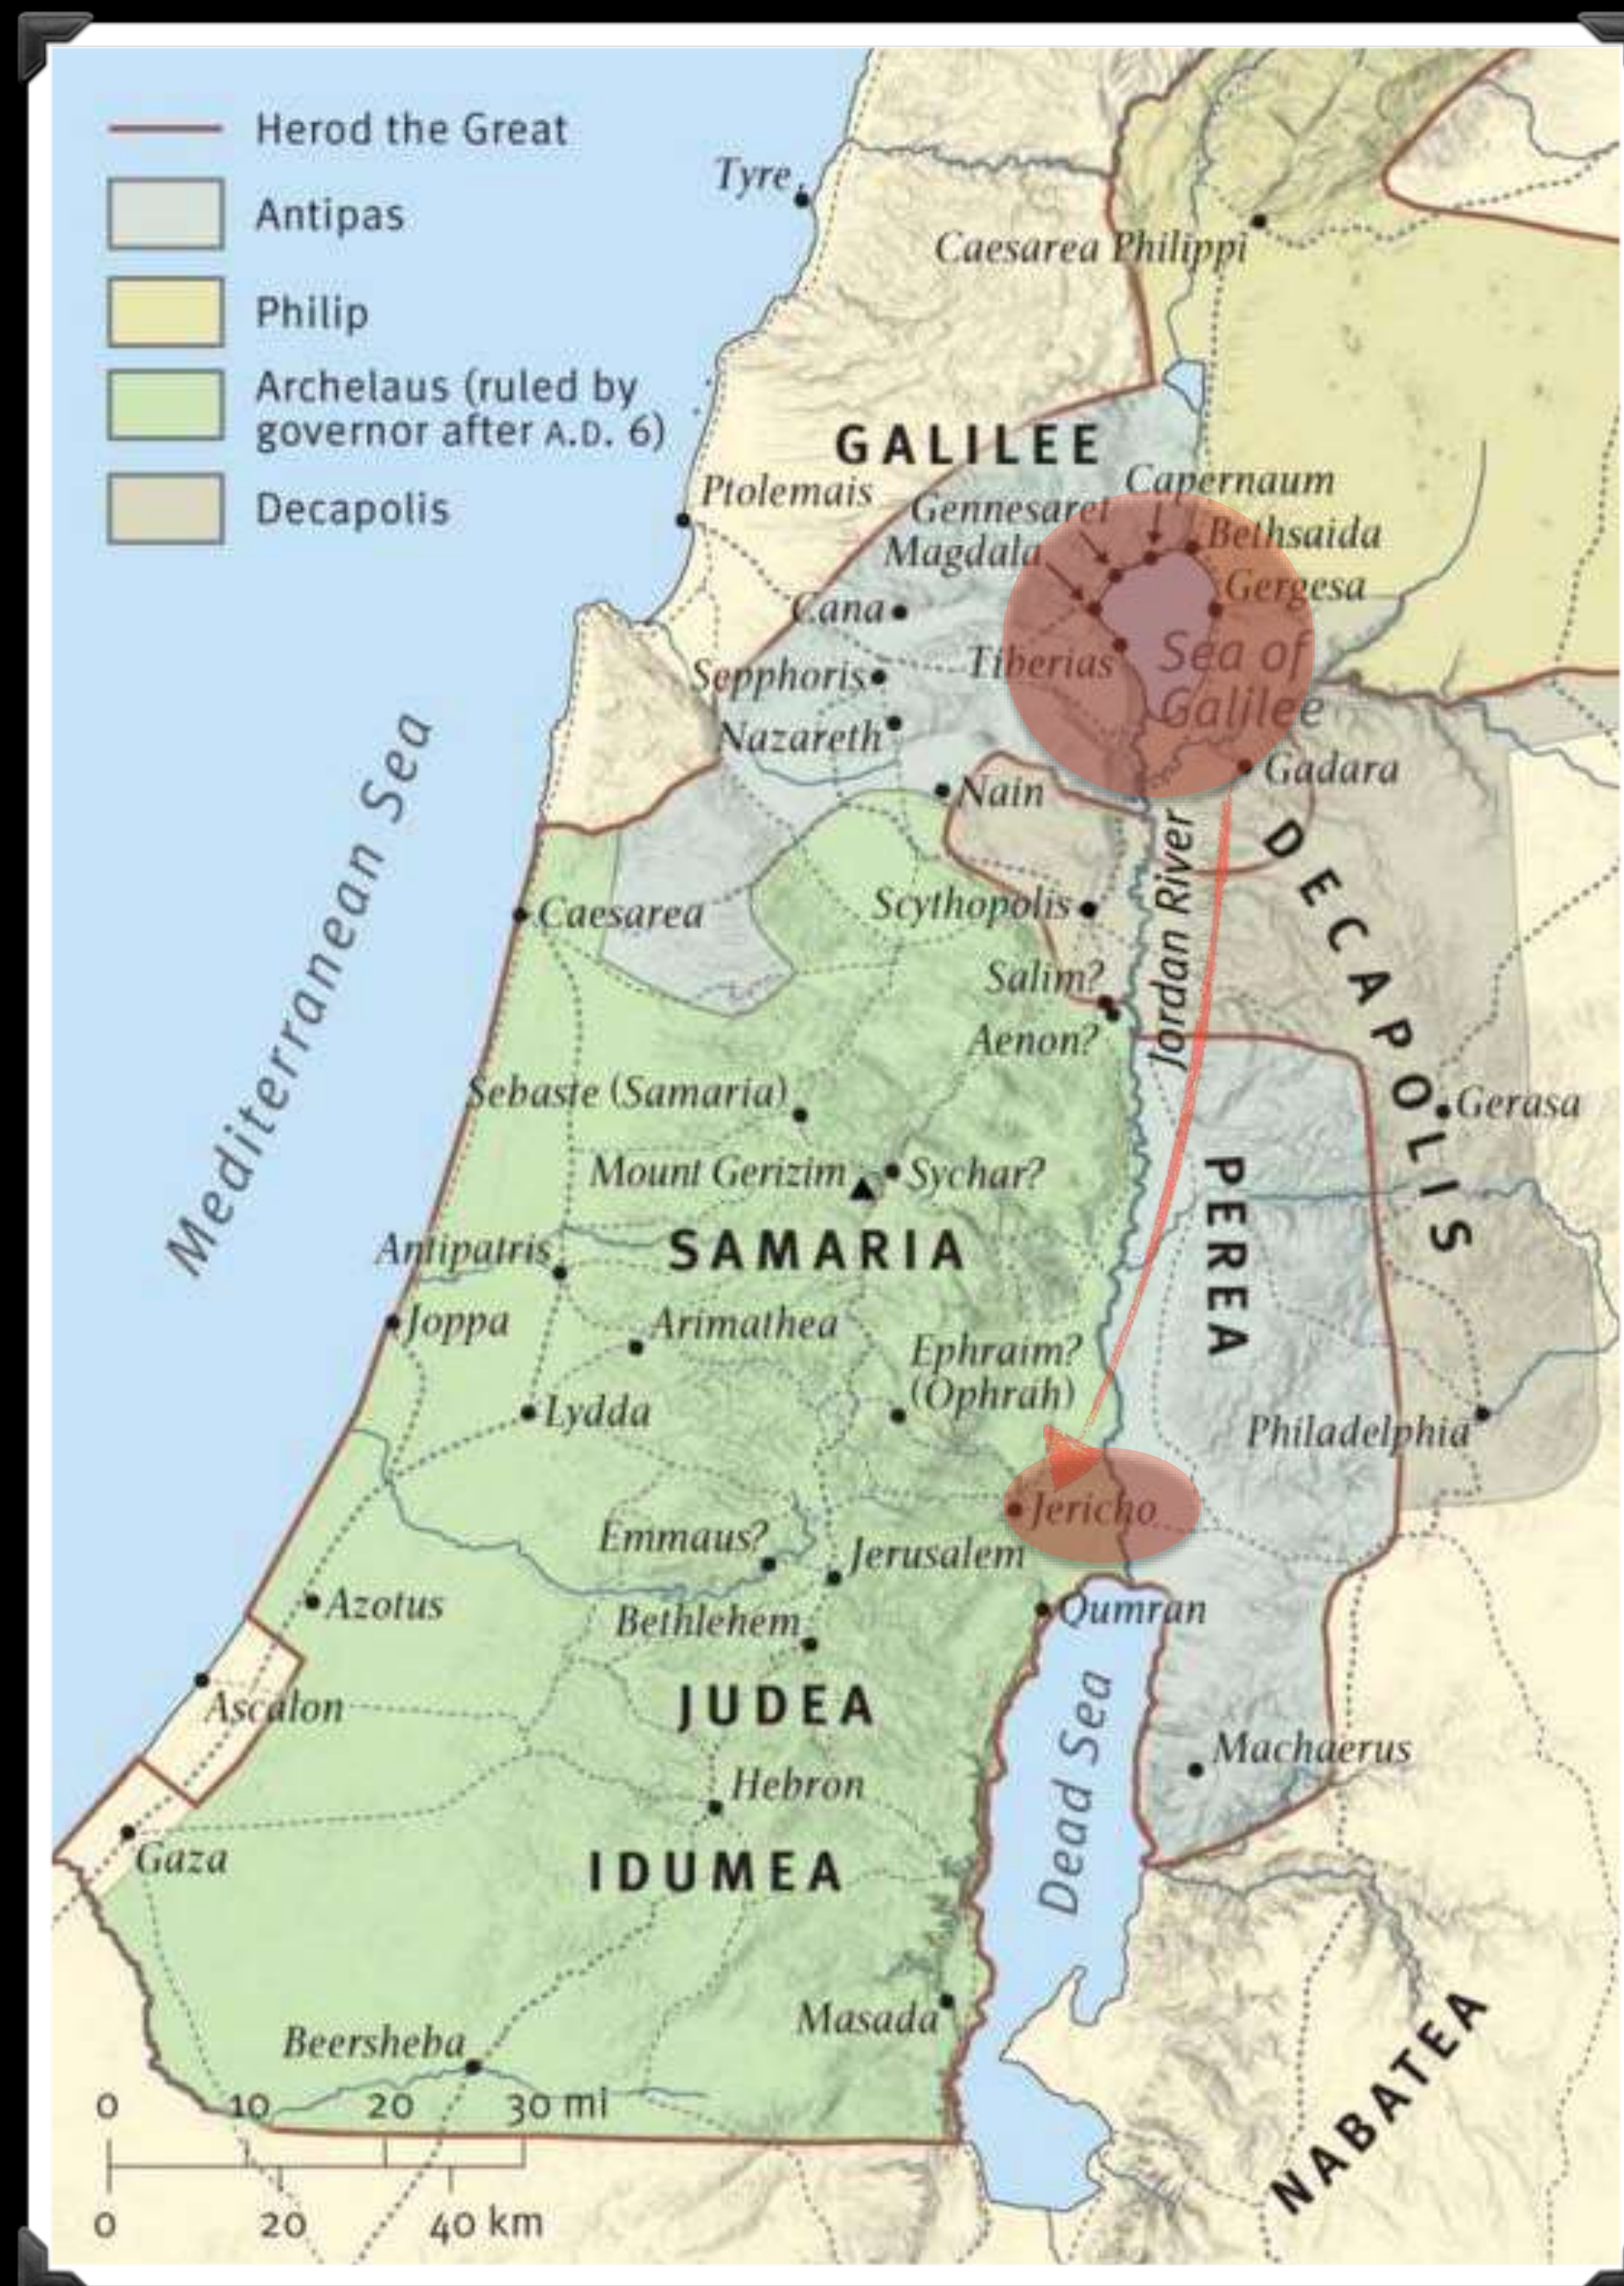

Matthew 20:29-34

Introduction

- This account as the conclusion of the section that began with the question in 18:1 - “Who is the greatest in the Kingdom of Heaven?”
- From chs.18-20 is an extended answer to that question.
- This text is both a conclusory answer as well as a transition into the next section.
- This event recorded in other synoptic Gospels.
 - Questions: What are the differences/similarities?
 - How does this account function in the narrative?

...Jericho

And as they went out of Jericho,
a great crowd followed him.

Matthew

²⁹ And as they went out of Jericho, a great crowd followed him. ³⁰ And behold, there were two blind men sitting by the roadside, and when they heard that Jesus was passing by, they cried out, "Lord, have mercy on us, Son of David!" ³¹ The crowd rebuked them, telling them to be silent, but they cried out all the more, "Lord, have mercy on us, Son of David!" ³² And stopping, Jesus called them and said, "What do you want me to do for you?" ³³ They said to him, "Lord, let our eyes be opened." ³⁴ And Jesus in pity touched their eyes, and immediately they recovered their sight and followed him.

Mark

⁴⁶ And they came to Jericho. And as he was leaving Jericho with his disciples and a great crowd, Bartimaeus, a blind beggar, the son of Timaeus, was sitting by the roadside. ⁴⁷ And when he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out and say, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!" ⁴⁸ And many rebuked him, telling him to be silent. But he cried out all the more, "Son of David, have mercy on me!" ⁴⁹ And Jesus stopped and said, "Call him." And they called the blind man, saying to him, "Take heart. Get up; he is calling you." ⁵⁰ And throwing off his cloak, he sprang up and came to Jesus. ⁵¹ And Jesus said to him, "What do you want me to do for you?" And the blind man said to him, "Rabbi, let me recover my sight." ⁵² And Jesus said to him, "Go your way; your faith has made you well." And immediately he recovered his sight and followed him on the way.

Luke

³⁵ As he drew near to Jericho, a blind man was sitting by the roadside begging. ³⁶ And hearing a crowd going by, he inquired what this meant. ³⁷ They told him, "Jesus of Nazareth is passing by." ³⁸ And he cried out, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!" ³⁹ And those who were in front rebuked him, telling him to be silent. But he cried out all the more, "Son of David, have mercy on me!" ⁴⁰ And Jesus stopped and commanded him to be brought to him. And when he came near, he asked him, ⁴¹ "What do you want me to do for you?" He said, "Lord, let me recover my sight." ⁴² And Jesus said to him, "Recover your sight; your faith has made you well." ⁴³ And immediately he recovered his sight and followed him, glorifying God. And all the people, when they saw it, gave praise to God.

Application

- In answer to who is the greatest in the Kingdom, it is two-fold: Jesus, the Son of David...and those who desperately call upon Him for mercy in their great need.
- In the Kingdom of God, those who are often most clear and vocal about who Jesus will be the disenfranchised, desperate, yet down-right determined to find mercy from Him.
- He is moved by pity...and you must come in faith.
- Have you done so?
- What do you want Him to do for you?
