

Jesus Christ, the Priestly King
Psalm 110:1-7

1. God the Father has given Christ supreme authority over _____. (vs. 1)

- a. Christ completely _____ the salvation work He came to accomplish.
- b. Christ's dominion continues _____ all His enemies have been subdued.

2. The Father will greatly _____ the kingdom of Christ. (vs. 2)

- a. Many will be subdued by the powerful word of the _____.
- b. The kingdom of Christ is in a state of ongoing _____.

3. The _____ of the kingdom of Christ. (vs. 3)

"The true churches of Jesus Christ travail in birth for the salvation of men. They are the armies of the Lamb, the grand object of whose existence is to extend the Redeemer's kingdom." - Andrew Fuller

- a. They are willingly _____ to Christ's service.
- b. They are _____ for a courageous obedience to Christ.
- c. They are _____ warriors in Christ.

- d. They will be an innumerable _____ ultimately covering the whole earth.

4. Jesus Christ reigns as the _____-King. (vs. 4)

- a. By a covenant oath within the Trinity, God the Son was ordained to be the forever _____ Priest for sinners.
- b. In Jesus Christ, the role of Priest and King are _____.
- c. If Christ is to be our _____, He must also be our King; if He is to be our King, He must also be our Priest.

5. Jesus Christ, the Priest-King, is pressing forward in _____ conquest. (vs. 5-7)

- a. Christ's rule is over _____ as well as individuals.
- b. The progress of the gospel is a shattering blow to the head of His _____.
- c. Christ steadily presses on to _____ as a general pursues a routed foe.
- d. Christ will powerfully subdue those who will not _____ on the appointed day of His wrath.