

Included in Christ: God's own Home

Ephesians 2:19-22

November 15, 2015

Who am I? And Where do I belong? What am intended to be and to do?

God says here, 'You are part of my kingdom, part of my family, part of my home.'

Death and Resurrection of Christ

The death and resurrection of Christ renews us as individuals and the church.

Three images - You are :

Members of God's Kingdom

Included in God's Family

A brick in God's Temple

Fellow Citizens

No longer strangers and aliens

Never underestimate the power of belonging. We are social creatures.

You are of God's household

You are not merely citizens either, but family.

You are of God's Building, His New Temple

Who are the Apostles, Prophets mentioned here?

The foundation, what is it?

Chief Cornerstone

What is a cornerstone? (Isa 28:16; 1 Cor 3:11; 1 Peter 2:4-5)

You are part of the Building

Sanctification not merely an individual thing it is a corporate endeavor.

We are the resurrected church.
